ATLANTA SALTWATER SPORTSMAN'S CLUB

Elbow Cay, Abaco Bahamas

June 1-8, 2013

Looking for world famous casinos, five star restaurants, and dancing in the disco all night long? Well, you won't find any of that in Abaco. You'll have to settle for miles of the most beautiful beaches in the world, snorkeling and diving on the third largest barrier reef in the world, relaxing, and a friendly laid back out island experience. Elbow Cay is a six-mile long cay in the Abaco Islands of the Bahamas.

Originally populated by British loyalists fleeing the newly independent United States of America in 1785, it has survived on fishing, boat building, and salvage. Its main village of Hope Town surrounds a protected harbor with a noted red and white striped 120 ft lighthouse built in 1863. Most of the club will be staying on the south end of the island, from White Sound south to Tahiti Beach.

Getting there by boat: This is not a trip recommended for small single engine boats. Also keep in mind that weather can significantly affect sea conditions in the gulfstream as well as our crossing date. Flexibility on both ends of the trip is required. We will need to trailer the boats to south Florida by Thursday, May 30. Several are planning to leave Atlanta on Wednesday. We will depart from Lake Worth Inlet Friday, May 31, at daybreak. The first leg is from Lake Worth Inlet to Memory Rock then to Spanish Cay to clear customs. After lunch and refueling we will continue on to Elbow Cay. This is a 185 nm boat ride; expect a long day of travel.

West Palm Beach Marina/Trailer Storage:

Lake Park Marina 561-881-3353 105 Lake Shore Drive, Lake Park, FL, <http://www.lakeparkmarina.com/>, has launch ramp and truck/trailer parking. Slips also available for $2 per foot per day. I recommend getting a slip for Thursday night since we will be leaving before the marina opens on Friday morning. Truck and trailer storage is $25 per day.

There is a U-haul storage facility at 11621 US Hwy 1, North Palm Beach. Call for rates 561-624-9342. The cost will be less than Lake Park Marina but there is some coordination and a taxi ride involved.

Getting there by plane: There are no direct flights to anywhere in Abaco from Atlanta. You'll need to make flight arrangements to Miami, Ft Lauderdale, or West Palm Beach and take a regional airline to Marsh Harbour (MHH). The best option I have found is ATL to PBI on Delta then PBI to MHH on Bahamasair. Another option is to fly direct from Atlanta to Freeport, Bahamas, then Bahamasair to Marsh Harbour. From the Marsh Harbour airport take a 10 minute taxi ride to the Elbow Cay ferry dock (about $15). You can have your cab driver stop at the grocery store and wait for you for another $10 plus tip (discuss rates with your driver first). You can coordinate to pick up your crew there or have them take the ferry. Albury's Ferry Service leaves Marsh Harbour every couple of hours up to 5:45 PM. The fare is $17 one way. Most of the club will fly in on Saturday and out the next Saturday.

Captain's Meeting: A safety meeting will be held at Lake Park Marina, 7:00 PM on Thursday, May 30. We will cover the buddy boat system, communications, routes, safety checks and departure times.

Abaco Marina Facilities: Sea Spray Marina, Elbow Cay. <http://www.seasprayresort.com/> Full service marina with slips with power and water; diesel and gasoline; laundry service; restaurant and rental cottages. Some rental homes have private docks, some are shared. Discuss with your rental agent. There are public docks that are free to use on a first come basis and are intended for smaller boats such as a rental boat.

Lodging: The club trip is scheduled in the peak of the high season. Make your reservations early! Hopetown Hideaways, <http://www.hopetown.com> or Elbow Cay Rentals, <http://www.elbowcayrentals.com> are probably your best bet. Rental homes from VRBO, <http://www.vrbo.com/vacation-rentals/caribbean/bahamas> is another option however most homeowners rely on one of the local real estate services for their reservations process. Abaco Inn, Hopetown Hideaway, Sea Spray, or Firefly are other resort options. <http://www.abacoinn.com> , <http://www.fireflysunsetresort.com/RentalSearch/gallery.aspx> , <http://www.seasprayresort.com/>

Boat Rental: If you choose to fly in you can rent a boat for the week. Rental boats are approved for ASWSC tournaments. The Sea of Abaco is protected and can generally be navigated in a small boat. Be aware that most rental agencies do not allow rentals to go off shore or run at night. Your rental agent can recommend rental boat companies or arrange to have them delivered to your dock.

Golf Cart Rentals: Golf carts are the primary mode of transportation on the cay. <http://www.hopetown.com/AboutUs/ConciergeServices.aspx>

Tournament Format: ASWSC Points Matrix. Best two days fishing; you pick 'em.

Weigh-In: Tahiti Beach Dock

Awards Dinner: Will be Friday, June 7, location and time TBD.

Tournament Fees: The tournament cost is $50 per boat plus $20 for each t-shirt, $25 for golf shirts or long sleeve t-shirts. Please note that meals are not included in the tournament fee. Applications due no later than 4:00 PM, May 19, 2013.

Club Contact: Norman Bowen, 321-696-6431, Norman.bowen@sprint.com

Other important information:

- A valid US passport and photo ID is required for everyone going. A birth certificate and drivers license is no longer valid.
- Every boat should have a 2013 copy of The Cruising Guide to Abaco Bahamas by Steve Dodge. The guide contains waypoints and routes throughout all of Abaco; charts; photos; business directory and other very valuable information.
- Boats entering the Bahamas should have and fly a yellow quarantine flag until you clear customs. There is a required cruising fee: $150 for boats under 30' and $300 for boats 30 and over and covers departure tax for three people. There is a $20 per person departure for each additional person. There is no departure tax for children under 6. You will also need to request a sportfishing permit (no additional fee).
- Returning to the US everyone on the boat must report together, with passports, to the US Customs and Border Patrol Point of Entry for a face to face interview and to clear back into the country.
- Check with your insurance company. Most boat insurance policies do not cover the Bahamas unless specifically stated. You may have to purchase a rider. Most companies will not insure a single engine boat under 25' at all.
- Renew your Tow Boat US tow insurance. There are two operators in Abaco.
- The Bahamian currency is based on the US dollar and US cash is accepted. Major US credit cards are accepted in most establishments but be aware your card company may charge a 3% or higher "international exchange" fee. Local merchants may also charge an additional fee for using credit cards.
- Pack light. Most air carriers limit baggage weight and charge hefty fees for over weight baggage. Bring half the stuff and twice the cash. There are markets on most cays that carry fresh breads, cheese, and vegetables. Rum is cheap and beer is expensive ($50/case); pack accordingly. The larger grocery stores are in Marsh Harbour. If you are flying into Marsh Harbour you may want to have your taxi driver stop for provisions. Negotiate the rate before you stop. There is one market on White Sound and several in the settlement.

- Bring flashlights and VHF radio. VHF is used in place of telephones by most businesses. Hail on channel 16 then switch to another channel. Channel use is different in the Bahamas. Use channel 11, 13, 14, 15, 68 or 69. Hailing a taxi on Marsh Harbour is on CH 06. Channel 72 is reserved for the Hopetown Fire Department.
- The Cruisers Net. At 8:15 AM on VHF CH 68 The Cruisers Net broadcasts weather update and local happenings and announcements.
- Water is scarce in Abaco so please conserve. There are no natural springs or wells. Rain water is collected in cisterns and filtered for use or brought in by boat from the mainland which is very expensive. The water is usually okay for drinking, but bottled water is available at all of the markets (about $25 a case).
- Handguns are permitted. The captain must report the make/model/serial number, and number of rounds of ammo. The gun must be secured and locked at all times – no exceptions. Penalties for violations result in jail time. The gun MAY NOT leave the vessel for any reason.
- Medical facilities are very good in Nassau and Freeport. Beyond that, transport will be required from more remote locations. Travelers should check with their medical providers to ensure their insurance will be accepted in the Bahamas – in many cases it does not and the traveler will be expected to pay for services when rendered. Travel insurance, which includes evacuation, is available from a host of companies at minimal expense. Note: even where western quality health care exists, blood for transfusions is always in critically low supply in the Bahamas.
- Penalties for crimes in the Bahamas can be quite serious compared to the same offense in the U.S. A recent American tourist was found to be in possession of a bullet, left over from a previous trip, and he is now serving 2 years in prison.
- Up to date information in regard to safety and security in the Bahamas can be found at the State Department web site, or by calling 1-888-407-4747.
- Pirated Goods are readily available in the Bahamas. These items are most often identified when the traveler by boat returns to the U.S. Being in possession of Pirated or stolen goods can result in fines and imprisonment.
- Read the links and forums listed. There is so much more that cannot be covered here.
